

Introducing Cortellis Deals Intelligence

Formerly Recap IQ

Find Faster. Evaluate Stronger. Negotiate Harder.

Deal making is the lifeblood of the industry and is a central focus to company growth, getting drugs/devices to market and overall success. Crafting effective deals is a mix of good science, relationships and strong research on competition.... starting with data from a source like CDI. Recap is now Cortellis Deals Intelligence: a platform bringing together the industry's most comprehensive deals analysis coverage.

Cortellis is home to the one source for comprehensive competitive analysis you know and trust: Cortellis Competitive Intelligence. With enhanced content, analytics and visualization tools, Cortellis Deals Intelligence brings you:

- 29,000 contracts (including un-redacted)
- 3,800 M&A deals
- Analysis via charts and tables in Excel format (Financial Summary export)
- Graphical deal reports (Deal Overviews)
- CDI includes details and searching not included in CCI including details on milestones, equities and royalties and projected value
